

CAREER RE-ENTRY INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Looking to build confidence and sharpen your technology skills?

Join our team, and we will support your return to work. Resume gap... gone!

Project-Based Work Opportunities for Returners

FlexProfessionals offers short-term, project-based work opportunities to support caregivers returning to work after extended career breaks. These projects are designed to give you relevant work experience and allow you to sharpen your skills, learn new skills, and build confidence in a supportive, flexible work environment. More than 20 amazing returners have joined our team through this program, using it as a springboard for finding meaningful, flexible work!

To Apply

You must reside in either the Washington, DC, or Boston metro areas and have taken a career break of at least five years. You must have an interest in gaining experience in one of the following areas: recruiting, accounting, human resources, marketing, or sales.

Please submit your resume and send an email cover letter introducing yourself and expressing why this internship is of interest to you. Please include your professional area of interest, career goals, and preferred work hours and schedule.

APPLY TODAY!

jobs@flexprofessionalsllc.com

(DC metro) or

Bostonjobs@flexprofessionalsllc.com

(Boston metro)

Program Highlights

- Complete an assignment aligned with your career goals in one of the following areas: accounting, candidate recruiting and engagement, human resources, marketing, or sales
- Up to six months in duration with a highly flexible schedule
- Commitment of up to 20 hours/week, mostly virtual with some on-site meetings
- Learn/brush up on essential work productivity and technology tools, such as MS Office, Google Workspace, CRMs, and more
- Attend team meetings, networking events, and job search workshops; observe job interviews; meet our recruiters; and learn about the local job market and available opportunities